ABSTRACT

State that the demarcation between the Nagartha pet & Devadapet (2nd Ward) exists in Bangalore from a long time and a deity of one pettah is not allowed to be taken in procession thro another pettah; that contrary to this manual, they hear that one Chik-Basavana of Nagarthpet has obtained a license to take the Sri Gangadhareshwara Swami of Javipur, in procession thro Devadapet; & that by doing so, not only would the procession be stopped, but there would be breach of peace.

Pray that license should not be granted to the said Chik Basavana contrary to manual

Sir,

With reference to your official memorandum No 2621 dated 4th June 1904 (and subsequent reminder noted in the margin) calling for a report on the petitions of Nagappa and other residents of Bangalore praying that the license granted to one Chick Basavva of Nagarath pett to take Shree Sam Gangadhareswaraswamy in procession through desadapet should be cancelled, I have the

X Returned

No 30-169 of 1903-1904-2 dt. July 1904

the honor to report that permission was granted in pursuance of the directions contained in Government Proceedings No. Mag 2. 3516-24 dated 17th May 1904, for the taking of the said Gangadharesawaran in procession to Lampange tank at the instance of the said Chik Basanna of Nagarath Pett.

To prevent the apprehended breach of peace a license was not granted in Chik Basanna's name But orders were only issued to the Amildar in the Mugrai Department to take the procession to the tank when Chik Basanna so desires and the route as noted in the margin was prescribed under Section 30 of the Police Regulations

The Police Superintendent

To start from Gandhy Pass through the Pandit Street, going by the West side of the Pandit Gangadhar, thence pass Straighton to the 1st Road in Ramanaiah's and their turning to the right pass through the Western and Northern Fort Gate and go to the Market Chowk, turn to the right and pass through the Cambu Gavan to the road left of the Veerappan Swamy School and arrive at Lampighelli tank and the same route to be adopted on the return journey also.
